

Warranty Certificate

This product warranty, provided by Wilson & Bradley Pty Ltd. (Wilson & Bradley), covers a period of 1 year from the date of invoice and covers all products sold by Wilson & Bradley to trade customers that are not covered by the Blum lifetime warranty.

During the warranty period, all faulty parts and/or functions will be repaired and/or replaced at no charge, excluding those faults resulting from:

- Exclusions
- Misuse
- Abuse
- Incorrect installation / application
- Surface damage

It is important to note where available all Wilson & Bradley products should be installed using installation instructions or specifications made available via either our sales team or our website www.wilbrad.com.au.

The purchaser will be found liable and no remedy offered if an item is found faulty due to incorrect installation.

Whether the item is to be replaced or repaired is at the discretion of Wilson & Bradley. If you do find a product to be faulty within 1 year of the invoice date and for reasons other than those listed in this document as exclusions please contact us at sales@wilbrad.com.au and provide us with the following information.

- Product description and code;
- date of purchase; and
- copy of invoice

Please note that whether the product is to be repaired or replaced will be at the discretion of Wilson & Bradley.

We may send a technician to assess the faulty product, or we may require the product to be sent to us.

If we require you to send the product to us, we will provide you with the appropriate address and postage information via email or phone. This cost will be at the expense of the purchaser.
